ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1. Shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

Mr. Sanford was arrested on September 20, 2013, for Violation of Probation by the State of Tennessee Board of Probation and Parole. His violations were failure to provide employment verification, failure to pay court costs or probation fees, viewing pornographic material on the internet, and failing to provide verification he has completed a sex offender assessment and attend sex offender treatment. Mr. Sanford conceded the violations in a hearing held in Davidson County Criminal Court on October 31, 2013. He was sentenced to time served. His state probation was restarted and he was ordered to have no internet access.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Other than the violation behavior listed above, the offender has been otherwise compliant with all standard and special conditions of supervision. Mr. Sanford underwent a mental health assessment on August 2, 2013. Treatment was not recommended.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is respectfully recommended that no action be taken by the Court at this time, however, should there be further violations requiring Court action, it is requested that these matters be heard at that time.

Assistant United States Attorney Clay Lee has been consulted and concurs with this recommendation.

Approved:
Britton Shelton
Supervisory U.S. Probation Officer
